

The Latke Song

by Debbie Friedman

I am so mixed up that I cannot tell you;
I'm sitting in this blender turning brown!
I've made friends with the onions and the flour
While the cook is scouting oil in town.

I sit here wondering what will come of me,
I can't be eaten looking as I do!
I need someone to take me out and cook me
Or I'll really end up in a royal stew!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!

Each holiday has food so special;
I'd like to have the same attention too!
I do not want to spend life in this blender
Won-der-ing what I'm supposed to do.

Matzah and charoset
are for Pesach,

Chopped liver and challah
for Shabbat;

Blintzes on Shavuot
are delicious,

And gefilte fish
no holiday's without!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!

It's so important that we all remember That while we have most of the things we need;
We must remember
those who have so little,
We must help them,
We must recognize their need!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!

I am a latke!
I'm a latke!
And I am waiting
for Chanukah to come!
